They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. (Acts 2:42-47)

1. Question: What does this scripture teach us about community?
2. Question: How wide and deep are your social connections?
3. Question: Do you have group of friends that you can be completely honest and authentic with? If not what keeps you from joining Rooted or a Life Group?
4. Question: What kind of commitment does fellowship/community require?
5. Question: How does shared suffering help us heal?
